

Venues participating in Liverpool's Transition Light Night 10 January 7-10pm

Tate Liverpool
The Fifth Floor: Ideas taking space
Open all day through to 10pm
0151 702 7400
www.tate.org.uk/liverpool

Tate Liverpool will be celebrating with The Fifth Floor: Ideas taking space; a celebration of the imagination and ideas of the people of Liverpool. We will host a special "indoor festival" where local musicians, performers and DJs will collaborate to create a new sound for Liverpool Tate (19.30 - 22.00). FREE

The Beatles Story
2 for 1 offer and late night opening.
Last admission 8.30pm, open until 10pm
0151 709 1963
www.beatlesstory.com
The Beatles Story celebrated "08" by undergoing a massive and exciting expansion. Now three times the size - come and see for yourselves the amazing changes. For this special night we are offering a '2 for 1' ticket on the evening of January 10th and will stay open late until 10pm. £12.25/Concs £8.30/Child £6.35.

Open Eye Gallery
David Goldblatt; Intersections
Intersected
Open all day through to 10pm
0151 709 9460
www.openeye.org.uk

Open Eye Gallery is proud to present the UK debut of a major new exhibition project by celebrated South African photographer David Goldblatt. Since the early 1970s Goldblatt has photographed the physical and ideological landscape of his native country. This exhibition looks at South Africa before and after the collapse of apartheid in 1990. FREE

The Picket
FUSED - tomorrows people!
7-10.30pm
0151 708 6789
www.myspace.com/picketliverpool
Always looking to invest in the future, the renowned Picket will present some of the best new young bands from Liverpool, building tomorrow out of the now, a fitting end to 2008 and a new start for 2009. Featuring My Auntie Sam. Off Target. Freq. The Metropolitans. A 14+ Dry Bar gig. FREE

Merseyside Maritime Museum and International Slavery Museum
Open all day through to 10pm
5- 9pm Captain Crusoe and Maritime Panto Characters
7.30 & 8.30pm The Fourmost
0151 478 4499 www.liverpoolmuseums.org.uk

Merseyside Maritime Museum
Liverpool's seafaring heritage is celebrated with collections reflecting the international importance of Liverpool as a gateway to the world. Take the Magical History Tour of Liverpool through fifty years of Merseybeat in the café - where you can also enjoy the tantalising new menu brimming with gastronomic delights! FREE

International Slavery Museum
The International Slavery Museum opened in Liverpool is the only national museum in the world dedicated to the history of the transatlantic slave trade and its legacy. Housed within Merseyside Maritime Museum at the Albert Dock; the exhibits deal with issues such as freedom, identity, human rights, discrimination and cultural change. FREE

Bluecoat Display Centre
'50 @ the BDC
Open until 10pm
0151 709 4014
www.bluecoatdisplaycentre.com
'50 @ the BDC' will feature 50 selected makers exhibiting one piece of ceramic, textile/fibre art, jewellery, wood or glass, each of which will retail for £50. This will celebrate the start of our 50th anniversary year and a specially curated programme of exhibitions that will run through 2009.

the Bluecoat
LIGHT NIGHT AT THE BLUECOAT
Galleries open until 10pm, the building until 10.30pm
0151 709 5297
www.thebluecoat.org.uk
Drop in, make art, have fun! Exhibition, Next Up: Liverpool Art Now, featuring Liverpool's most vital artists. Live music from The Suns and other Merseyside bands, plus DJ Mixmaster Grandmaster Tache. Food and drink, in the stunning, re-opened Upstairs restaurant and bar. Film of Sun Ra's legendary 1990 Bluecoat gig: wild cosmic jazz freak out. FREE

Wolstenholme Projects
After the Curtain Falls
7pm until 10pm
www.wolstenholmeprojects.org
After the Curtain Falls is an exhibition that considers the passing of a spectacular event as a point of departure, it features ex-students from The Slade School of Fine Art whose exploration of quiet statements in varying media favour personal observation and responsibility over aggressive methods or shock tactics. FREE

Leaf Tea Shop & Bar
Leaf Unplugged
7.30pm until late
0151 707 7747
www.thisisleaf.co.uk
A selection of Liverpool's leading signed and unsigned artists come together to celebrate the success of Capital of Culture 2008... the unplugged night to end all unplugged nights. FREE

3345 Parr Street
Terry Cryer Exhibition
Open until 2am
0151 708 6345
www.3345parrst.com
Timeless intuitive and alluring, Terry Cryer's images of the great jazz & blues musicians tell stories that words could never define. Plus DJ set from Anni Hogan, Marc Almond's musical director. FREE

FACT
DING>>DONG: open until 9.00pm in the Galleries
CODA: 9.00pm in the Box Building open until 11.00pm
0870 758 3217 www.fact.co.uk

DING>>DONG expands and reboots the music where hacking and rewiring equals listening and performing. Featuring artists The Fragmented Orchestra, The Owl Project, Andy McClusky, Peter Saville, Hambi Haralambous, Steve Symons, and Tetsuaki Babi. FREE

CODA: A blurry post-new year reflection on 08. Philip Jeck and Vergil Sharky play Woolworth's boomboxes, 60s and 70s record players, antique dulcimers, keyboards, retro guitars, found video and photographs in a hubris-free New Year confection. £10.00/£7.00 (members & concs)

- Venues participating in Liverpool Light Night 10 January 7-10pm
- 01 Albert Dock
 - 02 Beatles Story
 - 03 Bluecoat
 - 04 Bluecoat Display Centre
 - 05 Contemporary Urban Centre
 - 06 Cruise Liner Terminal
 - 07 FACT
 - 08 International Slavery Museum
 - 09 Leaf Tea Shop
 - 10 Liverpool ONE
 - 11 Mersey Ferries
 - 12 Merseyside Maritime Museum
 - 13 New Museum of Liverpool
 - 14 Open Eye Gallery
 - 15 Tate Liverpool
 - 16 The Picket
 - 17 Wolstenholme Projects
 - 18 3345 Parr Street
 - 19 Liverpool Biennial Public Artworks
 - 20 Ai Weiwei's Web of Light
 - 21 Diller Scofidio and Renfro Joyful Trees
 - 22 Rabbit (in collaboration with St Vincent De Paul Primary School)
 - 23 Richard Wilson's Turning The Place Over
 - 24 Rockscape
 - 25 Super Lamb Banana

- TRAIN STATION
- NATIONAL RAIL
- TOILETS
- TOURIST INFORMATION
- SHOPMOBILITY
- FERRY
- CRUISE LINER TERMINAL
- NHS WALK-IN