

Better Education and Training

1,829 frontline officers undertaken Domestic Abuse Matters training, with 150 dedicated Champions

2,900 officers & staff & 5,101 partners trained to be trauma informed

Expansion of Ask for Angela scheme

3,782 primary school pupils helped to identify inappropriate behaviour through Send me a Selfie programme

Domestic abuse refresher training rolled out for all lawyers

100 officers and 12 stalking champions trained as part of Suzy Lamplugh 100 Strong Campaign

'Honour'-based abuse & Modern Slavery session delivered by Savera UK

Domestic Abuse Workplace Champion scheme refreshed – 145 Champions trained

Launch of Op Halo sees new training for VAWG champions in Night-Time Economy

Increased Investment and Awareness

New specialist support service for victims of stalking & harassment

£400,000+ secured to protect families by acting early to tackle abusive behaviour

In-depth review of funding for domestic abuse services published – setting out 20 key recommendations

#TakingAction campaign shines a light on the red flags of domestic abuse

Brave victim-survivors share open letters to encourage others to seek support

Myth vs Facts

rips apart the lies used to excuse sexual violence

New active bystander training rolled out in Sefton & Wirral

Eyes Open campaign raises awareness of child exploitation in our communities &

Op MakeSafe shows how the business community can play their part too

Initiatives and Achievements

Increase in positive outcomes in domestic abuse cases & quicker, more effective charging decisions

Femicide Oversight Group launched

Improved working between police, CPS & support services helping to build stronger cases against offenders

More Independent Domestic Violence Advocates join police in responding to victim-survivors

Harmful Practices Protocol goes live

TravelSafe VAWG Strategy

focused on creating safer journeys

Liverpool City Region launches drive to tackle inequalities that prevent women & girls getting active

She Inspires programme wins award for innovative work building confidence, teamwork & resilience

New regional lead to drive work to tackle Child to Adult or Parent Violence or Abuse

Launch of Op Topaz sees high risk offenders intercepted on our roads

Launch of 'Safe Nights, Great Places' campaign to improve nighttime safety in St Helens

Hydrant Programme upskilling officers' identification and response to child sexual exploitation

Putting the voices of women and girls at the heart of this work

#TakingAction

campaign informed by focus groups with victim-survivors

Recruitment of an Independent Chair to lead VAWG oversight panel

Lived experience workshops and forums to learn from the voices of victims and survivors

Roundtables with students and young people to listen to their voices

Quarterly newsletters to show 'you said, we did'

Vigil to remember Merseyside's lost women & pledge our ongoing support to ending VAWG

EMILY SPURRELL
MERSEYSIDE POLICE
& CRIME COMMISSIONER

Lots achieved, but much more still to do...